OFFICE, 25 AND 27 FOURTEENTH ST.FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1878.
FOR CONGRESS.First District West Virginia, JOHN R. HUBBARD,
Of Ohio County.
Congressional Executive Committee,
W. J. W. CAMPBELL, Chairman, Wheeling.

COUNTY TICKET.

Senate—First District,
DR. H. W. HAZLETT.House of Delegates, FREDERICK GOODFELLOW,
THOMAS H. LOGAN,
BENJAMIN FISHER,
W. W. FOREMAN.Clerk of County Court, CAPT. JOHN CARLIN.
Clerk of Circuit Court, SAMUEL B. McCORMICK.PROFESSOR PARKS, Superintendent of Schools of Tyler county, in his address at the Institute on "Education in West Virginia," said there was not to his knowledge a teacher in Tyler who used tobacco, liquors or profane language.GEN. LEW. WALLACE, of Indiana, expresses the strongest confidence as to the result of the canvass in that State, and especially as to the power of the Republicans to secure the control of the Legislature, and to elect a Senator in the place of Mr. Voorhees.SPEAKER RANDALL has come to Western Pennsylvania to take the stump for his party. He thinks that the Democrats in Pennsylvania will elect their Governor, and that the Legislature will be Democratic and Greenback, which will ensure the defeat of Don Cameron for the Senate.In every Congressional district in Alabama the Democratic nominee is opposed by an Independent or Greenback candidate backed by the thorough organization of seceders from the Bourbon ranks, and strong enough to hold their own against all opposition. The Republicans are for the time quiet spectators of the contest, watching for the opportunity to slip in between with a Congressional or two of their own. It now appears probable that nearly all of the regular Democratic nominees will be beaten.As to remedies for the bite of the rattlesnake, a physician in Western Pennsylvania says that whisky is a specific.
He treats twenty or thirty persons a year for rattlesnake bites. The bites rarely prove fatal when whisky is used in season.
The rattlesnake always strikes at the neck, or as high up as he can get. In the experiments in Indianapolis every animal put into the snake's cage was struck in the neck. The snake's fang makes a very small wound, and but little blood escapes.
Inflammation sets in at once. The animal struck seems to suffer very little pain, and to be rather in a stupefied condition. Human beings are said to suffer acute pain from the wound. It is not known whether or not the rattlesnake poisons the animals that it desires to food, but it is known that it can swallow its own poison with impunity. It is said also that a human being may swallow rattlesnake poison with safety if there is, no wound about the mouth. There is some animal in-vulnerable so far as the rattlesnake is concerned, and that is the hog. The hog wages war upon all snakes, innocent and poisonous, and destroys them with eagerness.Hon. Thomas Martin, of Hardy county, died Sept. 21st, in his 70th year. He was a member of the Richmond Secession Convention of 1861 and of the West Virginia Convention of 1872.The Martinsburg Statesman (Democratic) takes comfort in the fact that the canvass in the Third District is not yet least supper, as it is in that part of the State.
"The Sick Man in the East," according to the Union Post, is Mr. Eugene Hale.
When the disappointed politicians get together to "eat crow," then, oh, then, exists the "gentle caw-caw," N. O. P. singing.The Republicans of Hancock hold a meeting at New Cumberland on the evening of the 4th of October.
There will be a gathering of the Republicans of Harrison county at Shinnston to-morrow. Gov. Polk and others will address them.While President Hayes was being received by the Chicagoans lately, in grand style, a pickpocket tried to carry off the distinguished guest's gold watch. But Mr.
Hayes had been in the White House too long to be caught off his guard. He had his hand on the pocket of the thief, and so he kept it. Western Pioneer.Thurman is to speak at Woodsfield tomorrow and at Bellefonte Monday evening, and Gen. Tom Ewing at Marietta Tuesday evening. Andrew H. Dill, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, will speak at Washington this (Friday) evening. Ross Alexander speaks several times next week in Belmont county.Stanley Matthews speaks out at Cambridge to-morrow afternoon.The Columbus Journal says: "Messrs.
Polindexter and Arnett, two of the brightest colored men in Ohio, will be on the stump in a few days advocating the claims of the party of liberty and honest money." Chap Stuart was beaten for the Greenback nomination for the House of Delegates last Saturday by C. P. Hudson. Look out for a new departure of some kind on the part of Chap. John J. Davis, of Clarksburg, addressed the Convention.
This looks as if he was co-operating with the Greenbackers and not with the Democracy in this canvass. It is not the first time that he has helped beat Col. Ben.

Washington Notes.

There are 90 votes in West Alexander, 86 in Middlebrook, 94 in Clayville, 1103 in Washington, and 14,411 in the County.Thirty-two trains, averaging sixteen cars to each train, passed over the Panhandle, through Burgettstown, last Sabbath.The W. & W. Railroad is carrying a large number of hogs just now. Five car loads came over on Friday and Saturday.At a meeting of the school board last week a resolution was passed that all teachers in our schools must be in their places fifteen minutes before the time for opening schools.

A Wheeling Boy's Life.

By J. W. CAMPBELL, September 26.

Hard times have had a tendency to bring many banks to account within the past year. There have been seven failures here, viz: the Collateral, the Collateral Loan and Savings, the Dime Savings, the Pioneer, the Masonic, the Farmers and Mechanics, and the Union. Just so soon as one would fail it would set all the de-positors of other banks to drawing, which in many instances, resulted rather seriously. This was renewed yesterday on the French Savings Bank, notwithstanding the assurance of the Bank Commissioner that the institution is sound and carefully managed.The Young Women's Christian Association of this city has done good work, and are continually working hard for the enlightenment of a certain unfortunate class, and have proved very successful. We hope their efforts may continue as there is a wide field for them here.There is an eminent lecturer who has just made his appearance on the stage, known as Hang Bue, a celebrity who has trained his education with Rev. O. H. Gish, the Chinese missionary here. He is an eminent speaker and has considerable influence over his brethren. His favorite topic is the "Sung Heng" literary motto of our city, which has a long history.
Considerable interest has been manifested here in aid of the yellow fever sufferers in the South. There have been seventy thousand dollars raised by various ways, and we are still pushing the noble work ahead. Last evening there was a very large meeting held, and speeches were made by United States Senator Sargent, the Attorney General of the State of Nevada, Senator J. C. Jones and others.A grand reception was given last night General D. M. Key at the Palace Hotel.
Monday evening, by Mayor A. J. Bryant, who extended invitations to all without regard to race or color. Notwithstanding this, however, it was rather a select affair, and passed off very pleasantly.There was great excitement in the city yesterday in learning that Alexander Austin, a very prominent and wealthy citizen, had committed self-murder at his country residence at San Mateo. It was a very sad affair indeed. He was supposed to have been insane. The cause is attributed to the loss of his wife and inability to meet his obligations to the city in the event of suits brought by the protesting taxpayers heir decided against him, and a demand made for the money by the Treasurer.
Whether there is truth in these rumors can only be known when Mr. Austin's affairs are settled.Tuesday's excitement was the sudden death of Ex-Governor H. H. Hight at a bathing establishment. He fell dead shortly after taking a steam bath. He was highly esteemed by all his acquaintances, and ranked foremost in his profession.
In the Fourth District Court there has been a case on trial for some time—Dr.
Cynthia L. Hayden, an invalid, who lives in this city, and has been confined to her bed for many months. She was found one thousand dollars, and committed to the county jail for ten days, for contempt of court and selling his vote for $500. This was rather a severe punishment, and one that was well deserved.Gen. John C. Fremont, now Governor of Arizona Territory, arrived in our city yesterday. Gen. Fremont is an old California pioneer, coming to this country in 1849.
He is the one who erected a big cabin on the mountains East of Santa Cruz in the same year.
Never was there in the history of this State such a grand reception given any man as that to Rev. Henry Ward Beecher on his last visit to this city. It was attended, that he would deliver four lectures, and before he arrived in the city all the reserved seats were sold. The Metropolitan Temple was crowded each evening, and to appease the anxiety for hearing him there were two more lectures announced, and he had provided houses each time. He preached twice, once in Dr. Stone's Church and the Grand Opera House. In each instance the audience was in their seats two hours before he made his appearance. He was severe in his remarks concerning the Kearney orders, which created quite a sensation among their number, and brought them out by the thousands, rebuking him.
Many large mass meetings were held throughout the State, who passed resolutions denouncing Mr. Beecher as a worldly preacher, who was in favor of keeping the workmen in servitude, which were disseminated throughout the State. It was reported that Beecher received $500 for each lecture he delivered. One of his lectures was on "Hard Times," to which Dennis Kearney replied in good style, saying that Beecher could easily advocate one dollar a day for a laborer, when he was receiving five hundred himself.

Big Fire at Jane Lew—Destruction of "Neely's Hotel and Several Other Buildings."

By J. W. CAMPBELL, September 24.

About 2 o'clock this morning, the clothing store owned by Cummins Norris, at the village of Jane Lew, in this county, was discovered to be on fire. Owing to the darkness of the night, it was some time before the citizens of the place could gather their forces to fight the destroyer, and the flames spread rapidly to the adjacent buildings. Neely's hotel, a fine commodious building together with the office and outbuildings connected therewith, were soon gone. Next came Dr. Summers' drug store, which specially fell a victim to the flames not an article, even the books, being saved. The Hall of Jackson Lodge No. 35, A. F. & A. M., with the records and regalia, was also destroyed. There are some other sufferers, but the loss falls mainly upon the following persons: Cummings Norris, clothing; insured on stock $1,000; building, $500; will lose largely. Howard Neely, proprietor of Neely's Hotel, building, insured for $1,500; will lose very largely. Dr. Summers, drug store; stock, fixtures and books an entire loss; will lose at least $2,500.
Jackson Lodge, Free Masons, loss not yet estimated. Wm. Simpson, shoemaker, loss considerable.All sorts of talk is going on as to the cause of the fire, and the belief is gaining ground that it was the work of an incendiary.

LATES.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

The Masonic Hall, Neely's Hotel, and Norris' clothing store at Jane Lew, Lewis county, were destroyed by fire last night.
Loss six thousand dollars, partially covered by a policy in the German Fire Insurance Company of Wheeling. It is apparent to have been the work of an incendiary.

journing of the Pittsburgh Conference and the meeting of the East Ohio Conference, the opportunity of visiting Alliance and meeting his brethren in the ministry whom he can hardly expect to see again in the flesh. He was greeted with the utmost cordially and tender resolutions were passed, expressive of the veneration and love the preachers bear him. His soul was deeply stirred and he replied in a few weighty, touching words, which made many an eye moisten, and his remarks in the conference, re-

Furious Fight With an Old Lady in a

Richmond, Va., Police Station.

Richmond, Va., September 25. Mrs.
Catherine Hunt, widow, aged about sixty years, recently married, and a Christian woman, was arrested by the police, and when she was taken to the police station that fact he ordered the Teller not to pay to her, order that it belonged to him; but it seems to-day that Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Donough settled the matter, she agreeing that she should have $2,000.
The whole amount was drawn out, and she paid it over to the old lady, who had been counted on the old lady's side, and she all and everything in her pocket, and then the old lady, who had been counting her with stealing seven thousand dollars. She was arrested and carried to the station, where she was ordered to fork over, and she showed fight. She was of strong physique, and said she could cleanse this whole police force. A rough and tumble fight ensued. The Sergeant and his men had to throw their prisoner down and take the currency from her bosom by force, which she did blushing, but with great firmness in the discharge of their duty. The old lady, who had been count-
